

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
SCHOOL OF GRADUATE STUDIES

SGS Graduate Supervision Awards Nomination Form

Each year, two JJ Berry Smith Doctoral Supervision Awards and two SGS Early Career Supervision Awards will be offered to successful nominees: one of each award in the Humanities/Social Sciences and in the Physical/Life Sciences

Deadline: Please contact your graduate unit/faculty office as each will establish their own internal deadline for this process.

Instructions: Complete and submit a nomination form by the deadline as set by the graduate unit/faculty office, ensuring all necessary supporting documents are included at the time of submission. Please submit all documents separately.

Learn more: https://facultyandstaff.sgs.utoronto.ca/gfm/supervision-award-for-faculty/#section_2

Select award for nomination:

- JJ Berry Smith Doctoral Supervision Award
- SGS Early Career Supervision Award

Faculty Nomination: (due to Research Health Sciences Education by: March 3, 2025)

This nomination is endorsed by (name of Faculty, e.g., Faculty of Music)the: TFOM

Nominee Information:

U of T Appointment(title/rank):
Name:
Faculty:		Graduate Unit:
Full Graduate Faculty membership: <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No			Start Date (mm / yyyy):
Email:		Phone:
Number of full-time graduate students currently under the supervision of nominee:		Master's:		PhD:
Number of students supervised to completion at UofT:		Master's:		PhD:

Nominator Information:

Attach a completed Table A: List of Nominators

- The nominators acknowledge that the contents of this nomination package may be used for consideration of other supervision/mentorship awards. For example, winners of the JJ Berry Smith Supervision Awards may be invited to be nominated for the annual CAGS or NAGS Mentorship awards.

Signature

Date

Attachments Checklist (see full details including naming conventions in Award Announcement):

- Table A: listing all nominators
- Faculty letter of recommendation from the Department Chair;
- Letters of nomination from:
 - A letter from the department chair, current and/or former colleague(s);
 - Two to five letters from former or current supervisee(s) – group nomination letters encouraged;
- A graduate teaching/supervision philosophy statement written by the candidate;
- Abbreviated CV. All co-publications/presentations with current and former doctoral students highlighted in yellow and student names underlined.
- Table B: listing all current and former graduate students and degree information.